Opening in April, the Abaton Island Resort & Spa has 152 rooms, 71 of which have private pools.

A new five-star hotel and resort is set to open in Crete with 152 uniquely designed rooms, 71 of which have their own swimming pools.

Opening in April, Abaton Island Resort & Spa is pitched as an "ultra-luxurious interior design" with fine dining on the water's edge and "exceptional" guest service with marble staircases, fountains of lights and historic architecture framing its entrance.

The modern seafront accommodation is spread across 360 metres of sandy shores and flights run directly from the UK to Heraklion International Airport, with the resort a 30-minute drive away.
