

Find Your Personal Sanctuary at Abaton Island Resort & Spa

Travelers in search of a relaxing summer sanctuary need look no further than Abaton Island Resort & Spa in Crete, Greece.

Opening this April 2018, this brand new five-star resort invites you to bask in the comfort of modern seafront accommodation, spread over 360 metres of coastline.

A 20-minute drive from Heraklion International Airport, the property offers 152 luxury guest rooms and suites with endless sea views and 74 open-air pools. Choose from 14 room types bathed in clean white lines and natural lighting while a personal concierge caters to all your needs.

To satisfy your desires, Abaton's therapeutic spa, powered by Elemis premium skincare products, provides a pampering experience. Rejuvenate with a range of treatments designed in synergy with the body and mind; then relax and recharge in the heated saltwater pool and sauna.

For fine dining, Abaton's five restaurants and two bars will indulge your senses. Savour local Cretan dishes from land and sea to Asian gastronomy and fresh sushi to gourmet steaks, vintage wines and tropical cocktails. Or treat your taste buds to 24/7 in-room dining.

Complete your stay at the resort's full gym and tennis courts as well as a boutique shop, jeweler and tailor.

Guests looking to travel in style can make good use of a helicopter/ yacht service, while loving couples can exchange vows on a private beach or plan a dream reception with bespoke wedding and honeymoon packages.

With its stylish accommodation complete with luxury services, variety of restaurants that will indulge your senses and a world class spa Abaton Island Resort & Spa is the place to escape this summer for your very own 5-star personal sanctuary.
